ABOUT ME

I am passionate about animal protection and absolutely love to be surrounded by animals. I am touched by anything that I feel unfair - from poverty to gender inequality and I strongly dislike any form of violence.

I am often told that I have a good analytic mind and the heart in the right place and that I tend to follow my heart.

The sound of the waves, the smell of the forest and watching animals gives me peace of mind and puts a smile in my face.

I like travelling and discovering new places, listening to music and dancing when I am not being watched.

SKILLS

Good presenter: Long experience giving lectures, seminars and courses in a variety of settings. Lively and structured presentations

Good at organizing and planning: I have long experience managing small and large scale projects, identifying goals and tasks and implementing plans.
